

Panel ~ Lessons Learned

New Cohort Institute
November 7, 2007

A stylized, low-poly mountain range graphic in shades of blue, located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

Panel Topics

Topic	Panel Members
Sample schedules from successful centers	McVay Fox Wallace
A list of who is running school, community, etc. programs and a brief description of activities/events	McVay
The effect of building participation capacity on success of the program. Its impact on family literacy, student performance and community support	Scott
Parent involvement as a key factor in improving student performance	Scott
How to get teachers excited about offering afterschool workshops for students	Fox

Panel Topics, continued

Topic	Panel Members
A variety of activities in programs	McVay Wallace
Staff supervision and classroom management strategies	Scott
Strategies for implementing the program from day one of award notification to end of year	Wallace
Experienced coordinators presently utilizing 21st CCLC grants that could be called or emailed when a new grantee has a question	McVay
A mentor for a new director; someone who is willing to answer questions and lend support	Fox